EUROPEAN NEWS.

The latest accounts from Europe show that, while the conflict of arms had not actually commenced, Prussia, Austria and Italy had each performed acts tantamount to the commencement of hostilities. Prussia was making cautious dispositions of large masses of troops, with the double design of covering her most exposed provinces, as Hungary and Poland, and of being in readiness for offensive operations should occasion require. Russia had given notice that she should remain neutral; but she anticipates that France will not forego the favorable opportunity for adding to her prestige, and, perhaps, of advancing her frontiers. The next arrival will be looked for with great interest, and can hardly fail to bring intelligence of actual conflict.

SPEAKING of the unanimity with which the new constitutional amendment was welcomed by loyal men of differing shades of opinion, the Chambersburg Repository says:

"The President sent his confidential emissaries to Philadelphia, New York and other points to negotiate for some sort of recognition of the President in the Union party, but their propositions were not entertained at all, and the President then fell back into his original sympathy with traitors again. The proposition was made in this State to withdraw the patronage from Mr. Cowan and the Democratic State Central Committee, and place it in the hands of the recognized Union organization, if the President could be allowed some sort of footing in the party, but no Union man would trust the apostate, and renew his power to betray and distract the party that gave him the highest honors of the nation."

With whom did he negotiate? and who felt empowered to act in behalf of the Republican party in a matter of this kind? The chosen representatives of the party are at Washington, and we doubt not there is good sense enough among the Republican members of the two Houses to secure the withdrawal of the Executive opposition to the amendment if it could be done without sacrificing essential principle.

GENERAL JAMES H. LANE the St. Louis Democrat, says:

"Owing to the cares and fatigues incident to his Senatorial duties, he has not been quite well for several months past. He left Washington some twelve days since, and went immediately to his home in Kansas, but concluded to return to Washington, and arrived here a day or two ago en route, but on account of his present indisposition, he is unable to proceed farther. We learn that his symptoms are such as to indicate a general decline and breaking down of his system, and possibly a threatening paralysis; and his medical attendant, Dr. T. G. Comstock, insists that he shall remain here, and be quiet until he is better, and then spend some time at Bedford Springs. Dr. Comstock thinks his patient's condition is such that it will not be prudent or possible for him to return to Washington and occupy his seat in the Senate during the session of the present Congress."

THE National Intelligencer is hypercritical. It insists that the validity of the public debt is called in question by the fourth section of the Constitutional Amendment, which provides that it shall not be repudiated, and that the rebel debt and losses shall not be assumed. It would take a vast amount of sophistry, and of the very best quality, to convince a sensible man that the laws against murder, arson and robbery give encouragement to the commission of those crimes. It will take quite as much to satisfy any individual capable of reasoning that to guarantee the public debt is equivalent to initiating repudiation.

CAMBRIA.—In this county the Democrats have had a fierce contest for the nomination for representative, between John S. Rhey, (former Speaker of the House,) John Fenlon, John P. Linton and E. R. Dunnegan. Mr. Linton was nominated on the fourth ballot.

For Register and Recorder, James Griffin was nominated; for Associate Judges, G. W. Easly and James Murray.

THE UNION CONVENTION of Clarion county met on the 26th inst. It was the largest Convention assembled there for years. Resolutions were adopted in favor of the Congressional reconstruction amendment and of General GEARY's election to the Governorship. The Hon. AMOS MEYER was unanimously nominated for Congress for the 20th District.

GENERAL KILPATRICK is accused of having taken an abandoned woman to Chili and introduced her into society. If the charge is substantiated he will be removed. This is bad on the part of the General; but he can plead an illustrious precedent among former representatives of his country at European courts.

Another Cure for Cholera.

Great difference of opinion exists among scientific physicians in regard to the employment of stimulants in the treatment of cholera. Dr. Hall's Cure, of Philadelphia, that never was greater error committed than that of giving camphene, pepper, mustard, camphor, brandy, salt, &c., in cholera. These stimulants have been employed from time immemorial among all nations, and I vet thousands upon thousands die at every visitation of the epidemic. I therefore propose to give a method of treating cholera so simple, so rapid, so certain, that it should commend itself to every unprejudiced mind. I assert that it will cure when stimulants, opiates and the vast list of experimental remedies which have been used in this complaint utterly fail. Even when the disease has progressed so far that eminent physicians have given up the case as hopeless, I have seen restoration by this mode take place almost instantaneously. Time—even a few minutes—often decides the fate of a person attacked; therefore speed is a great desideratum, and the treatment here recommended is the quickest on the face of the earth.

In cholera the serum or watery part of the blood runs off, leaving only the crassamentum, or thick portion. This is shown from the fact that the bodies of those who die from the disease present the extraordinary peculiarity of rigor without fluid. Nothing remains but the thick parts of the blood—mere clots or coagula in the large vessels, and dark, grumous blood in the smaller ones. The first indication is to stop this enormous hemorrhage. Medicine administered by the mouth cannot reach the case like going directly to the seat of the disease—the bowels. For this purpose use this injection. Its simplicity is such that a child can give it. It is a never-failing cure:—

Tincture opii.....Four drachms.
Amylum corn starch.....One ounce.
Tepid water.....Six ounces.

Mix. Inject slowly into the bowels. The injection mixture should be of the consistency of thin gruel. If it should come away it must be immediately repeated. If the injection be properly administered and in sufficient quantity it will stop the discharge from the bowels in fifteen minutes, and nothing will pass them for several days. The patient is then safe.

A weak mixture of chloroform, spirits camphor and turpentine may also be taken by the mouth. It is the only internal remedy that I have ever seen amount to much.

If the above injection cannot be quickly obtained a preparation of starch water, containing a solution of alum or laudanum, forms a cheap, convenient and effective injection.

By this treatment I will pledge all that I am worth that I can cure more cases of cholera that all other systems of medicine combined can possibly effect.

Twenty Years of Suffering Cured!
Below will be found a certificate from one of the most respectable citizens of Wilkinsburgh township in regard to Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher. The Doctor's certificates are within reach, and no one need be deceived in regard to his preparations:

Geo. H. Keyser: I became afflicted with pimples about twenty years ago, and every year they were growing worse, so as to trouble me very much, so much so at times as to unfit me for work. Sometimes I was so bad that I could not do anything on account of them. I had tried a great deal of medicine for them. I used to buy and take whatever I could hear of or read of in circulars and pamphlets that I thought would help me, but I could not get cured; sometimes they would do me some good for a little while, but afterwards they would return again as bad as ever. I also applied to two Doctors, who visited me at my house, and gave me some medicine, but it would not do, I could not get well. Over a year ago I got an advertisement of your Blood Searcher. When I called to see you you told me one bottle would not cure me, and that my whole system would have to be renewed by the medicine before I got well. I bought one bottle and took it home with me, and used it according to your directions. I then called to see you again, when you said I could not expect much from one bottle. I bought it, one bottle at a time, until I had used five bottles. After this quantity had been used, I was entirely well of the Piles, which had tortured me for twenty years. In other respects my health is improved, and I am as well as could be expected for one of my age, being sixty years past. I have been well now for six months, and there is no appearance of a return of the disease. I can do any kind of farming work now without the Piles coming down and hurting me. I can gather corn by hand, lift or do any kind of work which before used to hurt me. When I found out your Blood Searcher I kept on taking it until I got entirely well. I consider it my duty to make my case known to the country for the benefit of others who may be suffering as I was, and do not know the value of your medicine. You may publish this if you like. I live in Wilkins township, and will be pleased to satisfy any one of the truth of this certificate if they wish to call on me.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.
MUSHROOM IMITATIONS.

Success is the "prevalent cradle of innumerable humbugs. No sooner had HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS made their mark in the world than up sprang a host of imitations, and as the fame of the great restorative grew and spread, the pestiferous crop of poisonous mockeries thickened. But the true medicine has lived them down. One by one they have disappeared. When the bellows of puffery, which kept alive the feeble fire of their borrowed reputation, ceased to blow, they ceased to live, and thus they continue to come and go. Meanwhile, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, the great protective and remedial tonic of the age, have progressed in popularity with each succeeding year. Their success as a means of preventing and curing the diseases resulting from malaria, an wholesome water, and all unhealthy climatic influence, is unparalleled, and as a remedy for Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Fever and Ague, General Weakness and Debility, and all complaints originating in indigestion, they are now admitted to be superior to any other preparation ever advertised or prescribed. From the home market, to which a few years ago they were confined, their sale has been extended into every State in this Union, over the whole of South and Central America, Mexico, the West Indies, the Sandwich Islands, Australia, China and Japan. Home and foreign testimony continue to show that HOSTETTER'S BITTERS are the most remarkable tonic and invigorant now before the world.

Hostetter's Bitters
are sold wholesale and retail at very low rates at Fleming's Drug and Patent Medicine Depot, No. 84 Market street, corner of the Diamond and Market, near Fourth street.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

WASHINGTON, June 28, 1866.

SENATE.

On motion of Mr. Ramsay, the Committee on Postoffices and Post Roads were discharged from further consideration of a petition for a general law on the subject of bridging the Mississippi river.

Mr. Brown offered the following: Resolved, That the Committee on Judiciary be instructed to inquire into the expediency of providing by law for such a reorganization of the civil service, and especially of the Postoffice, Treasury and Interior departments, as shall secure appointments to the same for specific terms, after previous examination by proper boards, as shall provide for promotions on the score of merit or seniority, and safeguard of trial or resignations, as shall effect each branch of the service with well trained experts in the details of its business, and as shall assimilate them all more nearly to the conditions and regulations which govern the enlistment and officering of the army and navy of the United States, and which have successfully precluded the latter from being used merely as reservoirs of political patronage or ordinary appliances of party power.

Mr. Brown said the substance of this resolution was an attempt to conform the civil service, in many of its details and opportunities, to the regulations which govern the military service of the country. The subject was of such large character necessarily involves so much consideration that all I can hope at the present time is to bring it to the attention of the distinguished gentlemen who compose the committee on the Judiciary, and to invite for it their consideration. The resolution was adopted.

Mr. Wilson introduced the following joint resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Finance:

Resolved, &c. That interest shall be computed and paid to each State on all its claims for money expended by such State for the general benefit of the United States for the public military defense, according to the following rules, viz: First. The principal sum on which interest shall be computed shall be those which, before such computation, have been paid or passed to the credit of such a State. Second. Interest shall be allowed on those sums only on which the State either paid no interest or lost interest by the transfer of an interest-bearing fund. Third. The rate of interest to the time of payment made, which payment shall be first applied to the interest, and if it shall exceed the interest due, the balance shall be applied to diminish the principal; but if it falls short of the interest due, the balance of the interest shall not be added to the principal, but is lost forever.

Mr. Stewart called up the bill to regulate the occupation of the Mineral lands, and to extend the right of preemption, which, after a discussion, was passed.

Mr. Clark said he had been requested by Mr. Morrill, who was absent, to move the postponement of the regular order, which was the District of Columbia bill, and the motion prevailed, and the bill was postponed.

Mr. Pomeroy called up the Niagara Ship Canal bill, which was read.

Pending the reading of the bill, Mr. Sherman moved the postponement of the further consideration of the bill until the second Monday in December next. He said it involved an ultimate expense of $20,000. It was contingent upon the action of the Canadian Government, and he thought consent might be obtained first.

Mr. Sumner inquired of Mr. Sherman whether he did not think the consent of New York was necessary.

Mr. Sherman said it was required by one of the provisions of the bill. That was a question which might give rise to a great deal of debate.

Mr. Howe spoke against the postponement. This was a work of national importance. New York alone, but the entire country, and therefore Congress ought not to wait for the State legislature. The Secretary of War, in his annual report, had suggested the early commencement of the work. Delay would be dangerous. Canada was making great preparations for it. Petersburg, Hampton and Norfolk, were procuring great numbers of contrabands. He hoped the committee would go back into the country where the demand for labor is much beyond the supply.

The Senate finally confirmed John Speer as Collector of Customs at Leavenworth, Kansas, and Duff Green as Marshal for the southern district of Mississippi. The latter is the Duff Green of quarrelsome political notoriety.

The Senate to-day ratified several Indian treaties.

FROM SOUTH AMERICA.

Advices from Rio Janeiro—Business Failures—The War Between the Paraguayans and Allies.

NEW YORK, June 28.—The steamer North American, from Rio Janeiro on the 13th inst., has arrived.

Business at Rio was completely suspended, owing to the news of the English monetary crisis. Several failures occurred. No further movement probable in coffee until further advices were received from Europe.

The Ministry had been beaten in the vote on the budget, and the meeting of both Houses was postponed for eight days.

River Plate advices say no engagement had taken place, but a battle was always expected between the allies and Lopez.

Much sickness prevailed among the allies.

FROM GEORGIA.

Fifth Tornado—Convention of Colored Citizens Called—Lawyers and the Test Oath.

AUGUSTA, Ga., June 28.—A tornado, ranging for north-west to south-east, blowing down trees and fences and doing a number of other damages, visited this city.

A call appears in the Macon Telegraph for a convention of cotton planters to meet at Nashville, Georgia, on the 4th of July, to consider free labor and other subjects of interest.

Pending the discussion on Judge Brown had called States Disfranchised, and had declared Congress had the power to construct it, but he could not believe Congress ought to admit into the corporation a portion of New York and refuse it this work, and control it after its construction. He would vote for a bill to pay for the work come under the supervision of the Secretary of War, but he could not vote for the bill as it now stood.

Mr. Sherman attempted a motion to postpone, and Mr. Grimes moved to recommit the bill to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. Trumbull said he was very much gratified at the tone of this debate, and to hear Senators estimate it in its full importance. He was glad to hear the Senator from Ohio say it, and that the only question was as to the time. He believed the present financial condition of the country, instead of being a reason for postponing the measure, was a reason for its speedy passage. When they were pressed by difficulties they put forth their energies to cover themselves, and so it ought to be with nations.

Mr. Stewart spoke in favor of the bill. He believed the expenditure would be a profitable one to the government. It would increase the taxable value of property, and, in the end, reduce the national debt by increasing the wealth of the country.

Pending further consideration of this subject, the tax bill was returned from the House.

Mr. Fessenden moved that the Senate insist on disagreeing to the House bill, and agree to a committee of Conference called for by the House. The motion was agreed to, and the Chair appointed Messrs. Fessenden, Van Winkle, and Doolittle, on the part of the Senate.

Mr. Cresswell introduced a joint resolution, for the payment of religious societies in loyal States for property destroyed during the war.

The Senate went into executive session, and at three, P. M. adjourned.

HOUSE.

Mr. Julian, from the Committee on Public Lands, reported several bills, as follows: For the discontinuance of land officers, and authorizing modifications in the limits of Land Districts, which was read three times and passed.

The Senate bill to create an additional Land District in the State of Oregon was read three times and passed.

The Senate bill, concerning certain lands granted to the State of Nevada, was passed with amendments.

The Senate bill making a grant of lands in alternate sections to aid in the construction and extension of the Illinois Mountain Railroad from Pilot Knob, Missouri, to Helena, Arkansas, which was passed with amendments.

Mr. Driggs, from the same Committee, reported back the Senate bill granting lands to the State of Michigan to aid in the construction of a harbor and ship canal at Portage Lake, and from Keweenaw Point to Lake Superior. Passed. Also, the Senate bill granting certain lands to the State of Minnesota to aid in the construction of a ship canal to connect the waters of Lake Superior with Locia Belle, in that State, which was passed.

Mr. Julian, from the Committee on Public Lands, reported a bill to explain and limit an act to grant the right of way to the Portsmouth Canal Company through the public lands of the United States, which was passed.

Mr. Donnelly, from the same Committee, reported back the Senate bill making an additional grant of lands to the State of Minnesota, in alternate sections, to aid in the construction of railroads, which was passed with amendments.

Mr. Donnelly, from the same Committee, also reported the House bill granting the use of certain land in the Fort Snelling military reservation to the State of Minnesota, for the establishment of an asylum for the relief of disabled soldiers and sailors of the State, and of the United States, which was passed.

Mr. Donnelly, from the same Committee, also reported the House bill to amend the act to aid in the construction of a railroad from St. Paul to Lake Superior.

A debate arose on the bill. Mr. Donnelly explained that the object of the bill was simply to prevent a change of location.

Mr. Morrill spoke of the vast quantity of public lands granted to Minnesota and moved to lay the bill upon the table. The motion was lost by yeas 46, nays 72. The bill was then passed.

The report of the Committee on Elections in the contested election case from the district of Boyd against Kelso, was called up and the resolution declaring Mr. Kelso entitled to retain his seat was adopted.

A resolution was then adopted to pay Mr. Boyd $2,500 in full for the time spent and expenses incurred by him in making the contest.

The House went into a Committee of the whole on the tax bill.

Mr. Morrill took the floor, and spoke at length. He argued that our losses in the war had seriously reduced the amount of labor procurable, and that the inflation of the currency placed our manufacturers at the mercy of those in foreign countries—these and other circumstances rendered a revision of the tariff imperat ve.

Mr. Morrill claimed the American wool growers needed protection especially, and explained how the tariffs of 1857 and 1861 operated prejudicially. As regarded their interests, the Committee on Ways and Means had been deluged with petitions from them.

The classification of wools in the present bill leaves no loophole for the escape of foreign growth from the payment of duty. The duties on woolen cloths, &c., are very carefully adjusted. Last year our imports amounted to $53,000,000, but this year they will reach not less than $80,000,000. The country is in no condition to stand the drain of specie which this importation will require. It will be a calamity if the House adjourns without legislation on the tariff. He proceeded to explain some points in the bill now pending, which he feared might be overlooked. The abrogation of the reciprocity treaty affords a reason why a revision of the tariff is necessary.

Discussion was continued by several other gentlemen.

Mr. Sterette said he looked upon the bill as a free trade bill from beginning to end.

Mr. Moorhead, of Pennsylvania, liked the bill.

Mr. Kerney saw much in the bill to approve, but complained that the Committee on Ways and Means for having accomplished its work so speedily. There were somethings however which indicated haste and lack of consideration.

Yesterday about noon a shooting affair took place at Orrsville, near the mouth of Mahoning creek, on the line of the Allegheny Valley railroad, in Armstrong county, which will probably result in the death of a young man named Torrance C. Burns. The circumstances of the affair, as given to us by a gentleman who saw the occurrence, are as follows: A few days since Burns and a man named Patrick McHale were engaged to work on the repairs of the railroad at Orrsville. They worked harmoniously together for a few days, when McHale, becoming disgusted with the labor, quit, urging Burns to do the same. The latter, however, refused to comply with the wishes of McHale, and continued in the employ of the road, while his companion talked about doing nothing. Yesterday McHale became somewhat intoxicated, and arming himself with a pistol, went to where Burns was at work and began heaping opprobrious epithets on the paymaster of the road, stating that if he would not immediately pay him he would blow his brains out. Burns becoming wearied with McHale's abusive language, told him that he did not wish to be bothered any longer and walked off a short distance. McHale began to remove some dirt from the track. Raising up his head to see what had become of McHale, he discovered him but a few rods distant with fire pieces in his right hand and just about to fire it. Before he could make any attempt to escape the weapon was discharged, the contents entering the right breast of Burns, just above the lungs.

Several of his fellow employees immediately ran to the assistance of the wounded man, while others secured the perpetrator, who had endeavored to flee, and took him to a magistrate's office, where a commitment was obtained, by which he was taken to Kittanning and lodged in jail to await the result of Burns' injuries, which the attendant physician pronounced very dangerous and likely to prove fatal.

The injured man formerly resided at Saltsburg, Indiana county, Pa., where his parents still live. He had been at Orrsville but a few days before the occurrence, during which time he conducted himself in a quiet and orderly manner. McHale is also a young man and has recently come from Indiana county. Previous to coming to Orrsville he had been working in the oil regions.

A Reception for the Soldiers' Orphans.

On Monday a large number of Soldiers' Orphans from the different asylums in the Western part of the State will arrive in this city on their way to Philadelphia, where they go on an invitation from Governor Curtin, to attend the presentation of battle flags to Pennsylvania regiments on the fourth of July.

On their arrival in this city they will be conducted to Mozart Hall, where the substantial citizens will provide them with refreshments, after partaking of which they will be escorted to the train for the East. The Subsistence Committee having been placed in charge of the matter, have no doubt but the generous citizens will contribute liberally to assist in furnishing the refreshments. Those who may be willing to assist in furnishing the refreshments will please send in their contributions from our citizens in order to give the children of our fallen heroes a hearty welcome, as they richly deserve. Knowing the generous reputation of our citizens we have no doubt but they will respond to our defenders, and will meet with a hearty response. The most complete arrangements have been made for their reception at Philadelphia.

Charged with an Attempt to Feloniously Enter a Dwelling.

A woman giving her name as Barbara Pinkerton yesterday instituted legal proceedings against P. H. Fairman, before Alderman Taylor, for attempting to forcibly enter her dwelling in the Fifth ward, with, as she supposed, felonious intentions. In her deposition, Mrs. Pinkerton states that on Wednesday night she was awakened from her slumbers by a noise at her back door. Upon looking out of the window she discovered Fairman endeavoring to gain an entrance into her basement kitchen, by forcing open the door. She immediately alarmed the house when Fairman fled. A warrant has been issued for his arrest.

A Litigant.

Mary Doyle, who has figured conspicuously in police reports during the past few days, was before Alderman Taylor yesterday in answer to a charge of surety of the peace, preferred against her and entered by Patrick Kearney. Patrick Kearney, the complainant, testified that the defendant had been in the habit of annoying him for some time past, and that on the night mentioned, she made a disturbance at his residence, and threatened to take his life. Mary Doyle, in her defense, stated that Kearney had been in the habit of abusing her children, and that it was while defending them from his abuse that the difficulty occurred. Previous to coming to Pittsburgh she had been living in the oil regions.

Child Lost A Way of Advice

Joint Stock Agricultural Association.—At a recent meeting of the Beaver County Agricultural society a resolution was passed as follows: "That it is the opinion of this society into a joint stock association, with a capital of less than $4,000, in shares of $5 each, and that a certain proportionate amount of said shares be subscribed for in each township in the county, which, if not taken by citizens of such district before the first day of August next, may be taken by others as may be willing to subscribe thereto."

A Tornado.—The train on the Cleveland and Pittsburgh railroad going west left Alliance at 2:40 P. M. on Tuesday, ran into a tornado, seven miles south of Alliance. The engineer being large free-living, opposed, and finding the storm was coming upon him, put on all steam and all on board thought it would certainly be blown from the track, so great was the force of the wind. After passing the body of the storm it stopped, and the train moved on. During the storm hailstones about the size of a walnut fell with great violence.

Horrible.—The Mayor fined Conrad Monzan twenty-five dollars and costs for excepting filth and garbage into the street. The fine was duly paid, when Bill was let off with a vile and vilest description, and emitted a stench that was perfectly horrible. Conrad, in his defense to the indictment, charged the street with the proper receptacle for such nuisances. His Honor has doubtless understood him.

Ferocious Dog.—James Lyle appeared before Alderman Taylor yesterday, and made oath against William Daishen for keeping a ferocious dog. He stated that his infant daughter, Adelbe ta, was playing on the pave, when the dog, without the slightest provocation, sprang on the shoulder by the dog in question, from the effects of which serious results are anticipated. A warrant was issued for Lyle's arrest.

In Town.—H. R. Bryant, Postmaster at Bryantville, Armstrong county, Pa., paid us a visit yesterday, in our office. He reports the growing of the crops in his neighborhood, which the alternate sunshine and showers are bringing rapidly forward. He is shopping at the Soldiers' House, but leaves town to-day.

A Coal Digger Injured.—A coal digger named John Peck was injured at the new pit near Nobletown, on the line of the Steubenville Railroad, on Tuesday, by a lot of slate falling upon him while at work. His injuries are of such a character that his recovery was considered extremely doubtful.

Held to Bail.—Louisa Rolshauser was before Mayor Wilson, yesterday, charged with surety of the peace, on oath of J. Bittel. After a hearing Louisa was held to bail for trial at the next term of the Criminal Court.

Assault and Battery.—John Ryner was up for assault and battery, yesterday, before Alderman Humbert, his accuser being a German named Schantz. After a hearing Rolin was made to enter bail for his appearance at Court.

Arrested and Committed.—P. H. Fairman, noticed elsewhere as having been charged with attempting to forcibly enter the dwelling of Barbara Pinkerton, was arrested yesterday by officer Bell and committed to jail for a hearing.

Collarys. Nise.—Joseph Collarsined Johanna Nise for the purpose, before Alderman Taylor, yesterday. Johanna was arrested and made to enter bail to the amount of $200 for the security of Mrs. Nise from further molestation.

Editor Married.—George Bergner, editor of the Harrisburg Telegraph, was married in Erie City, on Thursday of last week, to Miss Louise Fuller. Mr. B. was in this city during the present week.

Conference.—The thirty-first session of the Erie Annual Conference will be held at Fairnville, commencing on Wednesday, July 11th. Bishop Ames will preside.

A Husband's Return—Warm Reception—Fired at With a Revolver and Arrested as a Burglar.

About twelve o'clock last night the watchman doing duty in the region of the Point was accosted by a man named George Rheams, who stated that he had caught a man in his house who had effected an entrance through a window in the rear, and that he wished to have him conveyed to the tombs. The watchman proceeded with Rheams to his residence on Point street, where he succeeded in arresting the house breaker, whom he transferred to the all possible despatch to the care of Captain Lewis. The arrested individual gave his name as John H. Buch, and made a statement, in substance:

Something over a year ago, and while he was yet in youth's bright spring-time, "a season when passion was not upon judgment, he married a sister of Rheams, with whom he lived until last February. During the existence of that time of perfect bliss which often precedes the lynching ask, they separated, he, the alleged prisoner, going back to the roof of his father, while she took shelter under the protecting care of her brother. The wrade met in the street, and the sight of each other rekindled the flame of love which had smoulded and so long and engagement was made for the husband to pay his better half a visit at her brother's house. With that object in view he called last night a little after seven o'clock, but finding all in bed and everything quiet, he believed himself to the rear of the house, where he raised a window and entered the sacred precincts of his wife's chamber. The consequence on the arrival of the recreant husband was armed Rheams, the owner of the habitation, who, armed with a revolver, proceeded to his sister's apartment, where he found Buch trembringly awaiting his coming. As soon as Rheams recognized the intruder he aimed the pistol at him and fired two shots, which, fortunately, passed harmlessly over his head. Rheams then cast the pistol aside and called for the watch, with the result stated above.

It is clear from the foregoing that Buch had no burglarious intent in entering the house, but was merely obeying the promptings of his better nature.

Alleged Thieves Captured.—Two men, named John Karns and Andrew Baxter, were committed to jail by Mayor Morrison, yesterday afternoon, under charge of larceny, preferred by Joseph Scott. It is alleged that recently they left the boarding-house of Mrs. Robinson, on Sandusky street, Fourth ward, Allegheny, and, shortly afterwards with their departure a gold watch, shirt, pair of pantaloons and other articles were missed. They were arrested at Kittanning yesterday.

Religious Reception and Profession.—On Thursday, the 21st inst., in the Convent Chapel, St. Xavier's, Latrobe, Miss Annie Joyce (or M. Severina) and Miss Mary McGrath (or M. Stanislaus) as Lay Sisters, received the white veil and habit of the Order of Mercy. On the following morning Miss Sarah Coyle (or M. Gonzaleo) and Miss Ellie McGrath (or M. Cecilia), the latter as a Lay Sister, made their profession of the vows of the Order.

Takes a Benefit.—Mr. Garber, the polite and attentive officer in keeping of the door at the Opera House, takes a benefit to-morrow evening. An excellent bill has been selected, and we trust that the efficient gentleman will receive a rousing benefit from his many friends and admirers. Seats can be secured at the box office during the day. We shall attribute it to a want of gratitude upon the part of the amusement loving community.

Horse Stolen.—A valuable horse was stolen from the stable of Mr. Berger, on the Fourth ward, Allegheny, on Wednesday night. The thief effected an entrance to the stable by forcing open a window. The door sufficiently large to allow him to insert his hand and draw back the bolt.

Injured.—John Bettler, farmer, residing near Bakerstown, while driving a wagon loaded with hay through Allegheny, yesterday, had his leg caught and badly bent between the wagon and a post, dislocating his right wrist and receiving a severe wound in the temple.

Back.—Our estimable and energetic townsman, John W. Pittock, proprietor of the Leader, has returned from the East, where he has been for the past three weeks. He has made some important purchases in connection with his paper.

Corner Stone Laying.—On Wednesday, the Fourth of July, the Right Rev. Bishop Domenec will officiate at the laying of the corner stone of a Catholic Church to be erected at Eyersville, in this county.

Notice to Contractors.—Contractors will find proposals advertised by the city in another column. These are rare chances to secure remunerative paying work.

We have received from W. A. Coldenfensy, Fifth street, Blackwood's Magazine for July.

SPRINKLING STREETS.

Apprehensions of pestilence have called the attention of persons specially charged with the Sanitary condition of large towns to the effect of watering streets, upon the health of inhabitants. Vegetable or animal matter tends naturally to decay, and the process of decomposition is hastened by exposure to the action of the elements—air, rain and sunlight. It is obvious that the streets of all towns contain more or less of these decaying substances. As fast as gases are engendered by the fermentation or decomposition of these substances, they escape into the atmosphere. Hence one of the reasons why crowded towns are in general more unhealthy than strictly rural districts, and why urban populations are most liable to destruction through the instrumentality of epidemic or contagious diseases. It is manifest that watering vegetable or animal substances, particularly when exposed to the rays of the sun, quickens decomposition, and consequently adds to the unhealthiness. It was from general considerations of this sort that the Board of Health of New York prohibited the sprinkling of the streets of that city, insisting that the organic matter of which the dust was formed should be removed by the broom and shovel rather than be evaporated to the prejudice of the public health. But this does not rest entirely in speculation. In New Orleans and other towns this matter has been subjected to practical test by sweeping certain streets and allowing others to be watered. The invariable result has been that in the swept streets the degree of health was much more favorable than in the sprinkled streets. This is always an important subject, but, in such a season as the present, when pestilence is seriously feared, it has unwonted significance. We commend the topic to the consideration of the Board of Health, and trust they will take such action thereon as to them shall seem most advantageous for the public welfare.

A THIRD PARTY.

A few days ago Messrs. DOOLITTLE, COWAN, DIXON, HENDRICKS, NESMITH, and five others, issued a Call for a National Convention, to be held in Philadelphia on the fourteenth of August, and in which all the States and Territories shall be represented. Commenting upon this movement the New York World wisely remarks:

"If President JOHNSON or his friends had any idea of organizing a new party, they should have commenced it some months earlier. Eight or ten months before the President stood well in the estimation of the Republican party, a majority of whom, at that time, deprecated a separation from him. Then, most of their papers had openly attacked him, a few had ceased to speak of him with respect. But every day that has elapsed since the meeting of Congress has weakened his hold upon the affections of the party, which has now settled into hopeless estrangement and alienation.

This is the plain truth. The President has lost his opportunity. When the project of starting a third party was conceived some months ago, bold and decided conduct, on the part of leaders, familiar with the springs of action in the masses of people, and adroit in the manipulation of affairs, would have made the movement formidable. No such leaders appeared, and a re-action has been established among the people. Whoever now repudiates the Republican organization can find association and repose only by going over to the Democrats.

MARSH DRAINING.

The Legislature of New Jersey having empowered the "Tide Water Company" to drain the Newark salt marshes, it is probable an earnest effort to that end will be made. These marshes comprise many thousands of acres, lying between Patterson, Newark and Jersey City, and are so low as in parts, to be inundated at high tide. Situated as these lands are they can be reclaimed only by the erection of dykes and the exhaustion of the waters by pumping, after the manner adopted in Holland.

On what is known as the "long level," in Central New York, between Utica and Syracuse, much valuable land, formerly of little account, has been reclaimed by a system of open ditches. In parts, however, the land is so nearly on a level with the face of the stream during wet seasons that the system is unavailing. It is probable that at some future period the plan of dykes and pumping will be resorted to in these localities.

THE Republicans of Fulton county held their Convention on Saturday and unanimously nominated Gen. Wm. H. Koontz for Congress, Dr. S. E. Duffield for Senator, John K. Richards for Assembly, Thompson Myers for Prothonotary, Jacob Barnhart and Benjamin Speck for Associate Judges, David Sipesmaker for Treasurer, and James G. Lyon for Commissioner. The Congressional conferees are Dr. Jacob S. Trout, Wm. Hanks and John M. Patterson. The Senatorial conferees are M. Edgar King, Isaac Taylor and Roland Austin. Legislative conferees are D. K. Wagner, Jacob Barnhart and Andrew Fisher.

THE military movements of Russia are involved in as much secrecy as the nature of the case admits. But large bodies of troops appear to be marching towards the Danubian principalities, and numerous agents are sedulously paying court, throughout those provinces, to the members of the Greek Church. Evidently Russia watches her opportunity to reach Constantinople.

IT SEEMS INEVITABLE that the war commencing in Germany must be of short duration. Neither Austria nor Prussia are in a financial condition to stand a protracted strain, and both have resorted to an issue of paper money to meet the expenses attendant upon warlike preparations.

GEN. MOORHEAD AGAIN.

EDITORS GAZETTE: Many of your readers, doubtless, would prefer applying to the little Republic, and its daily harmless fulminations, the maxim of the lawyers, de minimis non curat lex, but having taken occasion to show up the inconsistency of its objections to Gen. Moorhead, I beg to notice its reply thereto.

The Republic asserted that Gen. Moorhead was unfit for Congress because he had all his life been engaged in the sordid and debasing pursuit of "money-making," and had not had time or opportunity to familiarize himself with ancient and modern history, political ethics, etc. To this I replied, that if it were true of Gen. Moorhead it was equally so of Mr. Sawyer, a tallow chandler, now the ostensible editor of the Republic, and that, according to his own showing, he himself was not a fit teacher of the people, nor could he undertake to intelligently decide what were the requisite qualifications for a National Representative. This practical and personal application of its own logic, mind you, the editor of the Republic don't exactly relish, and goes on to state, in yesterday's issue, that "This would not be regarded by the editor of this paper, were it not for the fact that the article strikes at the best men of our country, as well as a great republican theory, that all occupations of life which are necessary are honorable. Abraham Lincoln was a "rail-splitter;" President Johnson was a tailor; General Washington was a farmer; General Jackson was an humble individual, a mere boy, orphaned and tender-aged; General Grant was a tanner, and handled offensive hides. The poor man of to-day may be the wealthy man of to-morrow," &c., &c.

Precisely so! What then becomes of the objections so strenuously urged by the Republic against General Moorhead? Has the fact of his having been a poor boy, without education, and being engaged in money making by handling offensive hides, or otherwise, anything to do with it? We trow not. He may for a' that make an excellent Representative.

As the Republic seems to have Moorhead on the brain, (forgive the tautology), instead of personal attacks of the kind spoken of, let it canvass fairly his vote and public record. If there is aught wrong in these it is but right such matters should be known and passed upon by the people. As the waddle from aspiring rivals about political ethics, contracts, or nepotism and quotations from the writings of Confucius, A. Hamilton, Esq., or even the great Johnston (blight W. F.) himself, cannot change or obscure the true issue between General Moorhead and the constituency which he has long and so ably represented.

—Ten years ago there were not more than 5,000 or 6,000 acres planted with the vine in the United States, and now there are not less than 2,000,000 so planted. Formerly American wine would scarcely bring a dollar a gallon, and now it sells at from 40 to six dollars per gallon.

—The six free baths established by the city authorities of Boston are patronized by about ten thousand persons daily—men, women and children. They are all well arranged, and have from thirteen to thirty dressing rooms. The water flows continually through openings at the sides, making it always clean and cool.

—Theodore Lee, of Philadelphia, missed his wife until she was driven to desert him. Since then her father has died, leaving her some three hundred thousand dollars. Lee brings a suit now to force her to come home again, signifying his willingness "to receive again and use her as a good husband ought to do."

—A quaint letter from Dr. Guillotin has been discovered. It reads thus: "Monsieur: The punishment which I have invented is so gentle—so gentle that really it is only the idea of death which could make it disagreeable. Indeed if one were not thinking of death, one would only experience the sensation of a slight and pleasant coolness on the neck, et voilà tout."

—Wolves and bears are unusually plenty this season in the Adirondacks, and numbers of these animals have boldly penetrated to the settlements in the middle portion of Warren and Essex counties. Several sheep, a few weeks since, were killed in broad daylight in a farm yard near Pottsville, and two wolves and a bear were recently taken in a trap in the village of Minerva, some twenty-five miles from Caldwell, Lake George.

—A bold conspiracy to break out was discovered among the prisoners in the county jail at Atlanta, Ga., last week. Their aim was to murder the sheriff, overpower the guard, and when outside to trust to chance for final escape. The plot was revealed to the sheriff as he was about to enter the prison, by a negro who was in jail, and certified to by three of the white men who had refused to enter into the plot. All the conspirators are now heavily ironed.

—Another horrible murder was committed at Little Rock on the 24th. Mrs. Perrine and two little children, while returning home from a walk in the woods, were attacked by some unknown ruffians, and all three murdered in cold blood. The supposed object was robbery. The murderers used knives, cutting the throats of their victims, and stabbing them in several places. When the bodies were discovered they were completely cold. No clue to the villains has been obtained.

—At Hudson, Michigan, on the 14th, a girl named Josephine Smith, thirteen years of age, made an attempt upon the life of her father, by putting arsenic in his tea. She says she was persuaded to give the poison to her father by her brother and sister-in-law; that her sister-in-law told her that her father had money, and that she could put the old man out of the way, and marry a young man to whom the old man was opposed, that her brother gave her the money, and that she bought the poison at a drug store.

—Nashville is surrounded by a tiara of earthworks, rising in massy battlements from river to river, and forming a perfect crescent pierced by streets and avenues. These battlements pass over a dozen hills, embracing in the circuit some of the best views in the southwest. It is now proposed to appropriate several thousand dollars, and connect all these works by a winding avenue, ten miles long, wide enough for two carriages to drive abreast, overshadowed by shade trees ornamented by rustic seats and booths, and at once the delight of visitors and citizens, the resort of all, and the pride of the city.

Heavy Robbery at a Gambling House—The Victim Plucked of $12,000—He is First Swindled at Faro and then Knocked Down and Robbed—Breaking Up of the Den, &c.

We received information on Saturday night of an affair that for audacity and extent exceeds anything that has transpired lately. A few days ago a gentleman from Bedford, Indiana, named Thomas A. Reynolds, arrived in our city and put up at the Louisville Hotel. He there became acquainted with a man—a stool-pigeon for one of the gambling hells—who ingratiated himself into his good will by various misrepresentations. On Saturday last this party enticed Reynolds to go around town with him, and took him to a gambling establishment up-stairs, over Sedgwick's saloon on Third street, between Main and Market streets, where a game of faro was being played. He was induced to bet upon the game, and all the tricks being resorted to by the "gay gamboliers," he was soon fleeced of $1,000, at this he concluded that he would leave, and going down stairs into the bar room to drink, was set upon by the crowd who followed him from the gaming room, knocked him down and robbed him of $2,500 in greenbacks, and two certificates of deposit of $4,000 each, on banks in Bedford and Indianapolis. On the police being made aware of the case they immediately proceeded to the scene, and arrested several persons, who were charged with being implicated in the affair. The principals in the robbery have escaped, not having been seen or heard of since the affair.

This daring piece of rascality, committed in the light of day by the keepers of a gambling house, should be quickly followed by a general and sweeping demolition of these institutions of crime, and the police should be set at once to effect this object.—Louisville Courier.

Wendell Phillips.

I have seen a slanderous paragraph from the Hartford Times directed against Wendell Phillips. You know I have had little sympathy with Mr. Phillips' later movement, yet in justice to him I the associates of this should be corrected. Mr. Phillips is "well off," as we Yankees say, but not a very rich man, by any means. His money is partially inherited, but was originally acquired in no discreditable way, his ancestors being of the most worthy and reputable Bostonians. He lives in a quiet and plain manner, without attempt at style or display, in an unfashionable quarter of the city. If I may judge from my own transactions with him, he is one of the most liberal of men. I have engaged him for public lectures on several occasions, and found him placing so moderate an estimate on his own value that it was not necessary to pay him more than half what men who are much his inferiors in ability and reputation command. This was pure magnanimity, too, not a lack of business knowledge, for a conservative brother of his declares that for judgment in practical matters, Wendell, spite of his eccentricities, is looked up to by all the family. To those of your readers who may not be familiar with Mr. Phillips personally, I want to say that he is a finished gentleman, has the most winning manners in social intercourse, and as elegant and distinguished personal bearing as any man in Boston. Few men, I honestly believe, would make a better or more unselfish use of riches than he.

Quarter Sessions Court.

Judges Sterrett and Brown presiding.

THURSDAY, June 28th.—The following business was disposed of:

ACQUITTED BUT HELD FOR HIS GOOD BEHAVIOR.

In the case of George Dyer, indicted for infamous conduct towards a little girl in Monongahela borough, the jury acquitted, but ordered the defendant to pay the costs. The Court had a few words to say. The testimony, viewed in the most favorable light possible, convicted defendant with a most disgraceful and brutal affair, and notwithstanding the verdict, the Court felt compelled to require him to enter into bonds in the sum of $200, as security for his good conduct for one year. The defendant was remanded.

WATCH THIEF CONVICTED.

William McCann was convicted of the larceny of a silver hunting-cased watch, ten dollars in money, and several articles of clothing, valued at one hundred and ten dollars, from the residence of Jacob Wilds, in Baldwin township. The Court sentenced him to undergo one year and ten months imprisonment in the penitentiary.

LARCENY AS BAILEE.

Jacob Aushutz was convicted of the larceny, as bailee, of a quantity of clothing which had been entrusted to his care by the owner, a Mr. Hewick, to deliver at the house of Mr. Charles Swart, in Snowden township. Sentence deferred.

TROY HILL LIQUOR DEALER TRIED.

Joseph Lodink, keeper of a beer saloon on Troy Hill, was convicted of two indictments charging him with selling liquor on Sunday, viz.: on the 22d and 29th of April. Sentence deferred.

TRIAL FOR ARSON.

Jacob Aushutz (convicted of larceny as bailee) was placed on trial upon an indictment for setting fire to a hay stack on the premises of Christian Hartman, in Snowden township, on the afternoon of May 28th. The prisoner, about eighteen years of age, was a German, if we said, unable to speak English. Evidence was offered by the Commonwealth that defendant was seen at Finleyville, Washington county, on noon on May 28th, was traced thence to the spot where the hay stack stood, and about ten o'clock that night was identified by the barn of Charles Stewart, three or four miles distant. In his possession were found a match box, matches, etc., and on being interrogated gave a very contradictory account of himself, stating that he had lost his way. He had worked at Stewart's a week previous. The circumstantial evidence was altogether circumstantial, and the jury found a verdict of not guilty. Prisoner was remanded for sentence for larceny, of which he was previously convicted.

WIFE BEATER PUNISHED.

James K. Lee pleaded guilty to an indictment charging him with having committed an assault and battery upon his wife Catharine, and was sentenced to pay the costs and to give bail in the sum of $200 for his good behavior for one year toward all good people, especially his better-half.

TRIAL FOR BURGLARY.

Daniel Mayhew, a boy of sixteen or seventeen years, was put on trial for burglary. He was charged with entering the dwelling of William Penn and office of Dr. Roberts, in the Canonsburg Academy building, on Saturday night, 17th instant, and taking therefrom a coat, pair of pants, shawl, three ladies' sacks, three shirts, a table cover, and half a dozen silver spoons. The accused, who was arrested during the same night, by officer Campbell, of the Mayor's police, and the articles mentioned found in his possession. He had a number of satisfactory stories; first, that he got the articles at his aunt's, in Birmingham, and was taking them home to the seventh ward, in order to wash. Next, that he had found them in a board pile, and next that he discovered them in a shift in the Monongahela, below the upper bridge. For the defence a brother of the prisoner named sylvester, aged eleven years, was called and made a statement, the Court thinking it unnecessary to put him under oath. He said that he was from home on the day of the alleged burglary, going to Birmingham; that his brother Daniel went in pursuit of him, and he (sylvester) avoided meeting him, but kept a few rods behind, keeping a sight of the distance behind, as he (Daniel) went to Brownstown, and returned to the city, passing through Smithfield street and crossing the suspension bridge; that in South Pittsburgh, at a board pile, he observed Daniel stop and pick up a bundle of something and take it with him. Going home on the Sabbath afternoon, Henry continuing along Smithfield street, whilst sylvester passed up Fourth street, sylvester reached home, but Daniel did not, having (as afterwards testified to) been arrested at the corner of Fifth and Smithfield streets. The jury evidently did not believe the prisoner's little brother, as they found a verdict of guilty. Remanded for sentence.

ABANDONMENT CASE.

The case of William Davis, charged with abandoning his wife, was heard by the court. Mrs. Davis being sworn, testified that she and her husband had lived together in South Pittsburgh, the latter pursuing his occupation of a boiler, earning from $30 to $40 every two weeks, whilst she kept boarding house, that they had been married about three years, and that the youngest SIX weeks; that about three months ago her husband deserted her and has since refused to support her; that she is now living with her brother, J. I. Powell. On cross-examination the wife admitted a state of affairs indicative of the existence of a worse state of affairs in the household, originating, primarily, in incompatibility of temper, but mainly through a sister of the wife who was obnoxious to the husband. The sister boarded with them, and Mr. Davis would not permit her to go, but Davis finally forcibly ejected her. On one occasion, during a quarrel, the wife took about demolishing the furniture and chinaware. About SIX weeks since after the separation, the wife became the mother of twins, one of which died at birth. She was now destitute of money, unable to support herself and children, and was dependant upon her brother. It appeared the parties had been separated for no less than six occasions, and the weight of the evidence seemed to justify the belief that the husband was the abused party, and not the most right to complain. Alderman W. A. Jones, who sent the case to the house to preserve the peace whilst the husband removed some goods, had his attention called to what damage the wife (on a former occasion) did to the furniture, &c. Eight chairs, the clock, and crockery ware were broken. One of the boarders testified that on one occasion, whilst in bed, he was awakened by a crashing noise, as of dishes breaking, that he got up to see what was going on. He saw the wife tossing dishes and cups and saucers at the husband, finally compelling him to seek a shelter under the bed. On another occasion she struck him with a poker, on another they were seen pulling each other's hair, and on another, in the height of her combativeness, she threw the fire some meat which was on cooking. It was also alleged that she had spent four hundred and seventy-six dollars of her husband's money during a period of five months, including the time which has elapsed since their last (the fourth) separation, about three months. After the evidence was concluded the parties were allowed to depart, the court reserving its judgment in the case.

LARCENY OF CLOTHING.

Henry Cunningham was arraigned for the larceny of a pair of shoes from Patterson & Hay's store, on Federal street, Allegheny, a couple of months since. He was observed taking the shoes, and they were found in his possession. Verdict guilty.

Amusements.

Aladdin still retains the boards at the Opera House. To-night it will be presented for the thirteenth time. We have spoken so often in praise of Aladdin, that to eulogize it further would be a mere waste of words. It will be withdrawn after to-morrow night, to give place to the Hanlin Brothers, who open at this establishment on Monday evening, in their wonderful acrobatic and gymnastic performances. They are at present in Chicago, where they have created quite a furore, drawing immense audiences, whilst the regular amusements were playing to empty houses.

This week has been dedicated to the stock company at the Theatre. Last night the popular "juvenile man," Harry Wentworth, put forth his claims which were liberally responded to. To-night the leading man, J. W. Osgood, will be benefited, for which he has prepared a bill of rare excellence. We hope to see the house packed.

Trimble's Varieties, with an excellent stock company, is still in the full tide of success, the audiences being not only large but appreciative. Manager Trimble knows thoroughly how to manage a first class place of amusement, and of this the people are fully aware, judging from the manner in which he is sustained.

City Mortality.

Surety of the Peace.—Annie Gordon had her George arrested yesterday and brought before Alderman Donaldson on a charge of surety of the peace. From the manner in which these parties have been acting of late, we presume the hymenial harness is rather galling to them. George declared before the Alderman that a writ of divorce was the only remedy that would relieve him from trouble. The magistrate thought otherwise, and George was forced to find bail in the sum of $300 to keep the peace.

A slight Mistake.—C. J. F. Keeler, who in our last issue was not, of as being up before Alderman Humbert for kicking a boy, desires us to say that he did not kick or abuse the boy whatever, which is doubtless correct, as Mr. K. is a peaceable, law abiding citizen. The information contained in our article we gleaned from an attache of the magistrate's office, and we presumed it to be correct, our informant having no reason for it's bias.

LATE FOREIGN NEWS.

Speech of the Emperor of Austria—Russian Force Advancing on the Austrian Frontier—Treaty Between Sweden, Norway and Denmark—Russian Forces Marching into Hanover—Important Circular from Prince Gortschakoff.

NEW YORK, June 28.—The following is the speech of the Emperor of Austria to the Common Council, of Vienna, on the 16th, referred to in the foreign news: "I receive this manifestation from the city of Vienna with great satisfaction. I have done everything in my power to preserve the peace and liberty of Germany, but it has been impossible in all quarters for me to do so. This is the most serious period I have experienced since my accession to the throne. I now resort to the sword with confidence in God, my good right, my valiant army, and the cooperation of my faithful subjects; but I must specially draw my fullest satisfaction with the unanimity and attitude of Vienna, notwithstanding that considerable sacrifice has been already imposed upon the capital by the stoppage of business and the want of employment for the population. The most exemplary order prevails here in comparison with the other countries, and I cannot sufficiently express my recognition of this fact."

The Berlin correspondent of the London Times says: The Russian force concentrated in Southern Poland is now slowly advancing in the direction of the Silesian frontier, and it is surmised, in Austrian Poland, will take up such a position as to eventually be at the disposal of the Kaiser.

It was positively stated at Copenhagen that Sweden, Norway and Denmark had concluded an offensive and defensive treaty of alliance.

It is stated that the Austrian minister for foreign affairs withheld the passports of Baron Von Werther, the Prussian Ambassador, until the Prussian government released Councillor Lusser, who was arrested in Holstein. Baron Von Werther consequently did not leave Vienna until the 14th.

Communications had been interrupted between Brescia and the Venetian provinces. Peschiera had been closed.

It was reported that a large Austrian army had been carried suddenly to the Bosnian frontier, the Italians propably having given Austria rea-on to fear an attack on Hungary. It was also rumored that the Italian troops had made a movement in advance upon Mincio.

HANOVER, June 15—16.—The Prussian forces are marching into Hanover from Harburg and Minden.

A Royal order has been issued prohibiting all further traffic in the districts of Harburg, Lunenburg and Hoya, and thus closing the Northern Hanoverian frontier.

The Prussian proposals for an alliance, in accordance with which Hanover should observe neutrality, has been refused by the King of Hanover, who has also positively rejected the principal points of the Prussian proposals for an armistice, namely immediate cessation, especially those articles of the Prussian project which refer to the military organization and question of the Germany fleet.

The Hamburg Railway has been destroyed in several places.

The Hanoverian troops were retiring to Gottingen for concentration, there with the Austrian Kalnk Brigade and the Bavarian army.

Garibaldi, accompanied by General Fabrizi, Dr. Albanese and many others, after inspecting regiments of volunteers assembled at Como will proceed to Pacinsa, where he will meet the King of Italy. He will next proceed to Bari and Barletta, to review the volunteer troops in these towns.

It is stated that he has addressed a letter to the king, begging him to give the command to a division of volunteers to General Palla viscini, who commanded the troops at Aspromonte, where Garibaldi was wounded in the foot.

VIENNA, June 8.—The New Freie Presse of to-day asserts that Prince Gortschakoff has sent a circular to the representatives of Russia abroad, stating that upon the slightest violation of neutrality by Prince Hanover will abandon her present neutral attitude.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Representative Washburne Convalescent—The Rosecrantz Naturalization Affair—Probable Expulsion of Rosecrantz—O. H. Browning Secretary of Interior—Nominations Rejected by the Senate—Dead Lock in the Tennessee Legislature—Jeff. Davis and the Assassination Plot.

NEW YORK, June 28.—The morning papers have the following specials from Washington:

Representative Washburne, of Illinois, who was taken suddenly ill a few days since, is convalescent.

The general opinion prevails that the Committee on the Rosecrantz-Orthwell affair will recommend the expulsion of Rosecrantz.

The Canada Committee on the Blackburn-Sanking affair are said to have decided that Fry's letter to Blaine, containing charges and imputations against Secretary Seward, is false.

The commissioner of the Land Office has issued a patent for 160 acres of land for the New Hesperia Rancho, California, which covers the city of Sacramento.

The New York Bankers, having failed to secure the passage of the bill exempting their capital from taxation, will now urge on the House the abatement of the tax on deposits and circulation, and the substitution of a tax of one quarter of one per cent. for that of one per cent.

It is said a deadlock in the Tennessee Legislature is to be produced by the resolutions proposed to the Constitutional Amendment, which will be offered when the Legislature meets, and which will leave the General Assembly without a quorum.

Before the end of the session the House intends to pass a bill to pay Capt. McDougall promptly, and Davis in the Lincoln assassination plot. They find no credible evidence implicating him.

Rich Gold Mines in Venezuela.

NEW YORK, June 28.—The Herald's correspondent says: The newly discovered gold mines in Venezuela are reported rich and easily worked. The crops are good. The prospects for the coffee crop were good. The cactus, the new President of Costa Rica, was very popular.

Fire in Buffalo.

BUFFALO, June 28.—A fire broke out last evening in the malt house and elevator of Reynolds & Root, destroying the latter, containing two thousand bushels of oats and fifteen thousand bushels grain, and a quantity of malt; loss, several thousand dollars.

Indictment Against Fenians.

BUFFALO, June 28.—The Courier has a dispatch from Canandaigua, dated last evening, saying that the Grand Jury have found indictments in front of the Fenians who went there from Buffalo for trial.

Destructive Fire in Virginia City.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—The recent fire in Virginia City, Nevada, destroyed property to the amount of two hundred thousand dollars, and rendered four hundred people homeless.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

THURSDAY, June 28, 1866.

The following are the New York stock quotations to-day, as received by telegraph by Mr. P. R. Mertz: 1881s, 10[illegible]; Five Twenties, 102[illegible]; Ten Forties, 10[illegible]; seven Thirties, 10[illegible]; Certificates, 10[illegible]; Cleveland & Pittsburgh R. R., 82; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago R. R., 99[illegible]; Erie, 66[illegible]; Chicago & North Western, 39[illegible].

There are so many incorrect statements made about the tax that will be imposed on the issues of banks organized under State laws, paid out by banks on and after the first of July, 1866, that it is important for every business man to understand the law. The act of Congress of March 3d 1865, reads thus:

"SEC. —. And be it further enacted, That every National banking association, State Bank or State banking association, shall pay a tax of ten per cent on the amount of notes of any State Bank or State banking association paid out by them after the first day of July, 1866.

—The Boston banks will not receive State bank bills on deposit after Saturday next, and will not pay out any after operating hours. notes which will be bankable and current in that city after that date will be greenbacks and national bank bills.

—Chief Justice Chase in a recent letter to Gov. Smyth, of New Hampshire, says:

"I got money, and all that was needed, in the worst times, on short controllable loans, subject to National taxation."

"Secretary Chase" got his money in the "worst times" by forced loans, and rapidly during his term of office by paying in market value. The plain legal tenders were forced paper, and so were the compound notes. The certificates of indebtedness were also another kind of forced loan, and the 7-30s were sold by using the arts of the patent medicine people, and by "puffing" and "taking" the public. The idea was also built from the start, and it is now apparent to all sound financial people, that the "Temporary Expedients" by which the Treasury was kept running during the Rebellion, is the great obstacle to the resumption of specie payments. Secretary Chase resisted legal tenders, national bank tenders and now sees all the predictions as to their damaging effect more than realized. The whole loan and currency movement of the Treasury during the Rebellion was a succession of dangerous expedients, but deemed absolutely necessary at the moment and suffered by the people. The effect of these expedients was increased by the unwise influence of $400,000,000 of irredeemable bank notes, $400,000,00 of legal tenders irredeemable, over $500,000,000 of short controllable loans in the form of 7-30s, to say nothing of temporary loans and one year certificates. The Treasury is now pressed with the "temporary loans" "to be renewed, as payment is impossible. The Government is also reduced to the alternative of paying from one to the best terms it can make for long time, or pay the debt bearing interest, as it matures in currency, and by so doing produce a new inflation.—New York Tribune.

New York Money and Stock Market.

NEW YORK, June 28.—Money market is easy, at 6@7 per cent., on call. There is rather more firmness to bankers' sterling, and the market is quiet generally. There is business, but very little doing. The Gold market fell off to 139[illegible] this afternoon, but rallied again to 139[illegible] at the close. The decline to-day was owing chiefly to the fact that some of the leading Bull operators have sold out their gold. The Government Securities have been very active during this day, and the market is strong and firm. The Seven-Thirty notes sold higher to-day than ever before. The following are the closing prices: Coupons of 1881, 10[illegible]; Five-Twenties of 1864, 10[illegible]; Ten-Forty Coupons, 9[illegible]; June Seven-Thirties, 10[illegible]; July do, 10[illegible].

The Stock market was generally quiet and steady, and little doing at the Second Board. Erie was the absorbing feature, and was quite active at times. The Stock sold up to 66 at the opening, but fell off to 65[illegible] during the bulling Erie, and did not show much. At the afternoon session Consolidated Gregory was the feature, and dominated considerably during the afternoon. Other stocks on the list were not important, except on United States, which fell to 80. Pinnole Creek, 19; do, 200; Shamokin, 40; Consolidated Gregory, 1000.

Mining Stocks—Attention, Irish, Corydon, 200; Dominie rifle, 31; Consolidated Gold, 100; Scott, 100; Hannon Gold, 3; Consolidated Gregory, 1500; Joy, 500; Gold Hill, 1000; Tyro, 500; Gold Express Stock—Atlantic, 80, 120.

The Post's money article says: Gold is lower to-day in consequence of a speculative movement, which has been in progress for some days, being also less unfavorable than has been anticipated. A slimness is shown in short sales against the Bull account, and a disposition to cover, and the borrowing rate is one-eighth in favor of the lenders. The loan market is unchanged. A superabundant supply of capital is offering, making supplies of money on the easy terms of interest is in favor of the borrower. Call loans are 6@7 per cent., and discounts 8@10 per cent. Gold is steady, without any special points of interest. Governments are held at higher rates, but there is little commercial demand for the currencies. Early in the forenoon, Erie fell to 65, and rallied to 66[illegible]. After the board, Erie closed at 66[illegible]. Reading, Hudson, Fort Wayne, Chicago, Rock Island and Mississippi Shortlines—Bay Shills, Bay Blackstone, 200; Canoe, 150; Columbia, 5; Bay Horse, 100; Bay Ballou, 100; Bay Bell, 100; Bay Brook, 100; Fremont Manufacturing Company, 220; Harris, No. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40,
